

HONORING RICHARD L. COTTA

HON. DEVIN NUNES

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, December 13, 2011

Mr. NUNES. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Richard L. Cotta, a pillar of the California dairy industry, on the occasion of his retirement.

Mr. Cotta has spent virtually his entire career in all aspects of the dairy business; from dairy farming to dairy genetics and from dairy processing to dairy politics.

Mr. Cotta is a graduate, with honors, from California State Polytechnic University, San Luis Obispo, with a degree in dairy husbandry. From 1980 to 1984 he was the CEO of United Dairymen of California, a producer trade organization, until it merged to form Western United Dairymen.

From 1984 to 1993, Mr. Cotta served as the CEO of Western United Dairymen, the largest producer trade association in California.

Since 2007, Mr. Cotta has held the title of President and CEO of California Dairies, Inc. (CDI). His career at CDI began in 1993 when he started as General Manager at San Joaquin Valley Dairymen, a dairy processing and marketing cooperative. In 1999, San Joaquin Valley Dairymen merged with Danish Creamery and California Milk Producers to form CDI. At this time, Mr. Cotta was named Senior Vice President of Producer Affairs and Government Relations, and held this position until he was named CEO in 2007. Under his leadership, CDI profits have reached record levels. Today, CDI is California's largest dairy provider and the 2nd largest in the United States.

Previously, Mr. Cotta worked as a sire analyst for American Breeders Service, a classifier for the Holstein Association of America and a principal in Genetics, Inc. For several years he was a dairy consultant with many successful dairies on feeding, breeding and management systems.

Mr. Cotta has testified before the U.S. Congress and the California Legislature on behalf of the dairy industry. At the request of the Secretary of Agriculture, he has participated in world trade missions to open foreign markets to U.S. dairy products.

Mr. Cotta currently owns and operates Cotta Farms and is a partner in Terra Bella Farms, both almond farming operations. He sits on the following boards: U.C. Davis Deans Advisory Council; California State University Chancellors Ag Advisory Council; Sacred Heart School Foundation; and the Innovation Center for U.S. Dairy. He is also on the Globalization Operating Committee for the U.S. Dairy Export Council.

Please join me in congratulating Mr. Richard L. Cotta on his retirement from California Dairies, Inc.

VIONA MAE HADER

HON. ED PERLMUTTER

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, December 13, 2011

Mr. PERLMUTTER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize and applaud Viona Mae Hader for her outstanding service to our community.

Viona is an inspirational and active member of the Golden community. She first moved to Golden in 1941 where she helped to establish and revitalize community events. In an effort to expand local trail rides, Viona helped revitalize the Buffalo Bill Days parade. She played an instrumental role in establishing the Foothills Art Center by purchasing the building and converting it into a gallery.

Viona is knowledgeable and observant. When she saw veterans receiving American flags for their service, she wondered how she could showcase these amazing soldiers' accomplishments. Soon after, she started the Flag Project at the Golden Cemetery. At the beginning, there were only eight flags, but now there are over 315 flags every Memorial Day, July 4th and Labor Day.

Viona is a pioneer. She was the first full-time employee of the Golden Chamber of Commerce and helped develop the first Golden tourist program. Among her many firsts, Viona is credited for writing the first History of Golden.

I extend my deepest congratulations to Viona Mae Hader for her well deserved honor by the West Chamber serving Jefferson County. I have no doubt she will exhibit the same dedication and character in all her future accomplishments.
